G. Other Conditions

1. All the terms and conditions mentioned in The UGC Research Development and Innovation Programs Implementation Guidelines, 4th Edition, 2017 are applicable.
2. For the purpose of the disbursement of fund, progress report and the completion of the program, the date of acceptance of the PhD research proposal at the institution will be counted as the starting date.
3. In case the PhD research project requires additional funding, it is a joint obligation of the Host Institution and the Supervisor to help find the funding. Before applying for such funding to an agency other than the UGC, the applicant must apply to the UGC for permission. The UGC will give permission if it is satisfied with the need of additional funding for the research.
4. Changes in the title or the objectives of the research project can only be made with the permission from the Office of the Dean and Research Committee at the Host Institution. In case of change, a proof of such permission must be submitted to the UGC Research Division.
5. The Fellow must maintain a Research Logbook recording all activities and relevant notes on a daily basis.
6. Progress reports, publications in peer-reviewed journals, paper presentations in seminar/workshops, etc. are the major output indicators to be used to evaluate the performance of the Fellow.
7. If the progress is found to be unsatisfactory by the UGC reviewer and research monitoring officers, the UGC will notify the Supervisor and the Institution. The UGC may also ask the Institution to withhold the disbursement of the Research fund to the Fellow. If negligence is found on the part of the Fellow, the UGC may issue a warning the first time such negligence happens and terminate the contract the second time it occurs.
8. Research misconduct and any unethical activity are punishable. It is the Host Institution's obligation to conduct the investigation on any suspected or alleged research misconduct. Small Institutions that do not have adequate resources to conduct such investigation might request the UGC for assistance. Any proceeding in the case of research misconduct will involve four steps of action consisting of Inquiry, Investigation, Adjudication and Appeal, and shall be carried out with fairness and expedience as fundamental principles.
9. The PhD program must be completed within 3 years from the date of acceptance of the PhD Thesis Proposal by the enrolling Institution. The period can be extended one year at a time for two more years with the permission/recommendation of the enrolling University and the UGC. It can be extended for additional one year in the event of circumstances beyond one's control as certified by the enrolling university. The Fellowship file is closed at the end of the sixth year and any remaining installment of the fund is forfeited. Fellows who do not submit the Final Report within six years will be placed in the UGC Barred List until the Final Report is submitted.
10. In case of disputes in any issues with this agreement, the UGC reserves the rights to give the final decision.
